Daniel Boone National Forest – Red River Gorge Geological Area

More than 100 natural sandstone arches can be found in the 40,000 acres of the Red River Gorge, along with nearly 70 miles of trails. Many trails are considered strenuous so hikers should consider physical ability before choosing a trail to hike. Area maps give the length of the hike to be able to plan your time. A good rule of thumb is to plan approximately 35-45 minute per mile of hiking time for the casual hiker in this terrain. For digital maps, information and audio tours about the Red River Gorge, download the Daniel Boone National Forest app, available on the Google play store and the Apple app store.

Sky Bridge and Grays Arch provide picnic areas, restrooms, great scenery, and trails. All official trails have a name, number, and are marked with white diamonds painted on trees. If you are unfamiliar with the area please stick to the designated trails only, as they are maintained.

One of the most interesting features of the “Gorge” is the Nada Tunnel, a 900 ft tunnel along Rt. 77. Built in the early 1900’s, this one lane tunnel once provided railroad transport of timber from the Gorge.

Back Country Camping

1 day = $3 3 days = $5 Annual = $30

Dispersed camping (back country) requires a permit. The permit is a hang tag that hangs from your rear view mirror of your vehicle and must be displayed between 10pm and 6am. Permits can be purchased from Gladie Center, Daniel Boone Coffee Shop, and local gas stations and convenience stores.

We have an app!

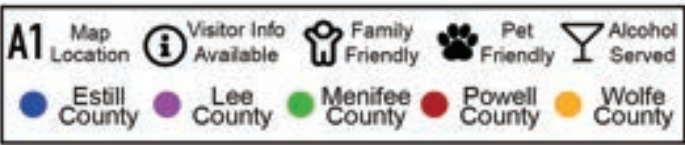

Use your phone to discover the forest and access our tour

Search “Daniel Boone National Forest” in your app store or visit:

Important Rules to Remember

This area is full of cliffs. While it makes our area unique and beautiful, it is extremely dangerous. Avoid camping near cliff edges. Avoid foot traffic after dark. Watch your footing when walking near cliffs. Keep children supervised at all times.

- Campers must camp at least 100 feet from the base of any cliff and rock shelter and 300 feet from road or any official trail.

- Kentucky law prohibits the consumption of alcohol in public places and open containers.

- Due to black bears, food storage restrictions apply. Use bear resistant containers for food and garbage or suspend food off ground.

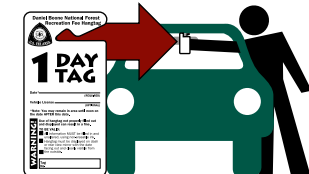

- Mountain bikes and motorized vehicles are prohibited on trails in the Gorge.

- Never Approach A Bear. If you see a bear, back away slowly. Do Not Run.

- Pets Allowed in Gorge.

Leave No Trace

Tread lightly and leave no trace of your visit so others may enjoy the beauty and nature. Take out with you whatever you bring into the area. Dispose of waste properly.

Permits are required
A recreation permit is required for overnight camping in the Red River Gorge Geological Area and Indian Creek. All vehicles on KY 15 or in the Red River Gorge and Indian Creek areas north of KY 15 must display a permit between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m. Permits are available at local stores and at the Gladie Learning Center.

Camping is prohibited:

- Within 300 feet of any developed road
- Within 300 feet of any Forest Service trail
- Within 600 feet of Grays Arch
- In any picnic area or parking area

Do not camp in rockshelters.
These sensitive areas provide critical habitat for plants and animals.

The following are prohibited:

- Camping within 100 feet of the base of any cliff, or back of any rockshelter
- Building, maintaining, attending and using a fire, campfire or stove within 100 feet of the base of any cliff, or the back of a rock shelter
